Free admission.

Works by Charles Barth

Forsberg Riverside Galleries

April 19 - August 19, 2012

Sirenes and Sun gods, Diego Rivera and Frida Kahlo, mariachis and luchadores - the colorful cultural icons of Mexico are examined, explored and re-imagined in the paintings and prints of Charles Barth. A longtime Professor of Art at Mount Mercy College, Barth and his wife Ellen now split their time between Cedar Rapids, Iowa and the Mexican state of Oaxaca. Mexico meets the Midwest! Free admission.

Opening Reception & Gallery Talk

April 19 | 6:30-8:00 pm

Free admission. Sponsored by the Friends of the Art Center

Selections from the WCA Collection

Featured Exhibit

Mini Masters:

A Nine-Hole Course in Art

Phelps Youth Pavilion
 RJ McElroy Junior Art Gallery III
 EXTENDED! On display through
 December 30, 2012

If you haven't had the opportunity to swing in and play a round of mini golf, you are missing out! In this hands-on exhibit, art and golf come together in the most unique way. When playing this 9-hole course, you will learn about the great master artists of the 20th century as you maneuver around the art-influenced hazards and sand traps, such as a suspended "paintbrush" pendulum, optical illusions, the Eiffel Tower, an elevated bridge, a gigantic Campbell's Soup can, and more!

* Check out all of our family and Phelps Youth Pavilion events (including a day camp in March) on the following pages!

Family Fun Days

On the 1st Thursday of every month, the Phelps Youth Pavilion plans special themed activities for the whole family. All this fun is included in your daily admission!

Pop Goes the Warhol

March 1, 2012

What is Pop Art? Who was Andy Warhol? Discover the answers to these questions while exploring hands-on art activities in Art's Workshop and playing mini-golf on the Andy Warhol hole in the Mini-Masters: A Nine-Hole Course in Art exhibit.

Sensational Scribbles

April 5, 2012

Discover how to express your moods and feelings using the 'elements of art'. Have fun using line, shape, form, color, texture, space and value to explore new art projects in Art's Workshop. Make time to play a round in the Mini Masters golf course and make "The Scream" scream!

Dali's Dreamworld

May 3, 2012

Salvador Dali's art is called

Surrealism because it has fantastic, dreamlike qualities. Explore the Youth Pavilion then visit Art's Workshop to 'make and take' some dreamy art projects. Be sure to play the Dali hole in our Mini Masters golf exhibit.

Garden Art

June 7, 2012

The gardens are bursting with color and the flowers are in bloom! After having fun in the Youth Pavilion, head for Art's Workshop to create your own flower art. Be sure to play a round of Mini Masters golf, where you will see Claude Monet painting a picture of the water lilies on his garden pond.

Summer Splash

July 5, 2012

Whew! It's HOT! Cool off with watery art activities and fun in Art's Workshop, then enjoy a round of golf in the air-conditioned Mini Masters: A Nine-Hole Course in Art exhibit. Check out our Under the Sea room installation project, where you can help create a room full of underwater adventures!

Fun With the Sun

August 2, 2012

Did you know you can make pictures by using the sun's rays? Try this and other sun-related, hands-on activities in Art's Workshop. Before heading home, don't forget to play a round of golf in at our Mini-Masters: A Nine-Hole Course in Art exhibit.

CultureFest 2012

Thursday, March 29, 2012

5:30-7:30pm
